Manville Board of Education Goals for the 2013 - 2014 School Year:

1. The members of the Manville Board of Education will continue to provide additional methods of communication that encourage participation and involvement from all stakeholder groups with a focus upon the following:
  - a. The videotaping of specific meetings of the Board of Education;
  - b. Active involvement and participation in the Borough of Manville's Community Day; and
  - c. The sponsoring of one district-wide presentation for parents, guardians, and community members.

2. The members of the Manville Board of Education will continue to participate in professional learning activities that afford all members of the Board of Education with relevant information in support of the decision-making process as it relates to instruction and programs, governance, operations, fiscal management, and personnel in the service of the district. Significant areas of concentration and participation are as follows:
  - a. The completion of all mandated professional learning as mandated by the NJDOE; and
  - b. Participation of all members of the Board of Education in individualized professional learning as available by county and state organizations.

3. The members of the Manville Board of Education will participate in Strategic Planning as it relates to school choice and district reconfiguration for the 2014 – 2015 school year.
