The Sisters of Mercy

Kudos to Chris Kavanagh, Diane Gualtieri, Karen Mellor, and Cindy LoSasso!

Who ever would have thought 25 years ago that Cabaret would still be going strong in 2008? Well, if you know anything about Chris Kavanagh, Diane Gualtieri, Karen Mellor, and Cindy LoSasso you'd have to say that it comes as no surprise. Year after year this quartet surprises and delights us with one spectacular performance after another.

With seemingly no effort at all--always flawless and completely professional!--they create spectacles of song and dance. We're surprised that their names haven't been set up in lights on Broadway.

It's hats off to our dynamic performing arts wonders. We send them our best wishes, admiration, and affection on the occasion of their Cabaret "silver jubilee"! And we hope they will be entertaining us for many more years to come during Manhattan at the Bay!

ampus Life

T*he Academy never sleeps. From early morning, pre-school Advanced Placement classes to afternoon athletic events, to late-night performing arts events and mixers, and the presence of the after-hours cleaning crew, the halls and classrooms, athletic center and auditorium, are flooded with the life and excitement of young women following their passions. As the school buses roll in and the parking lot fills each morning, the energy builds, while laughter and chatter mark the meeting of friends. Bells, announcements, and BV-TV are all part of the flow, as vital as the activities and the learning that opens minds and touches hearts. The old cliché is true...there's never a dull moment at the Bay!

Seniors

Seniors at last! How sweet it is! We never thought we'd make it, but it's our turn to shine and to walk the halls—"our turf"—with confidence, even if underneath that veneer we are worried about college applications and acceptances. We have made it! So much excitement fills this year, our last year at St. Mary Academy-Bay View. And so many "last times" fill our days...the last time we celebrate Newcomers', the last time we attend the Mother-Daughter Brunch and the Father-Daughter Dance. Yes, so many "lasts," but also so many "firsts." Our first time to be in the spotlight, our first time to "domin-eight" for real, our first time to assume the role as leaders for the whole school. Yes, how sweet it is! But it is also bittersweet to leave behind all those friends we have made and to forge ahead on a new adventure.

Underclasses

Being an underclasswoman is a three-year journey to the top! Along the way, we have to endure the trials and tribulations of being a first-year student--not knowing the schedule, the routine, or even where to find that first period class! It means being the new girls on the block! It means inheriting the previous graduating class color. Come sophomore year, we move up the ranks and can look back with astonishment that we actually made it through ninth-grade. Now our challenges are bigger, our responsibilities are greater, and our sense of fun is better than ever! We know we can beat those seniors in the Newcomers' Welcome challenge...if only they didn't cheat! And oh! how sweet it is to become upperclasswomen as juniors! We're beginning to think about college and know that this is the year that really counts! If only we could score a perfect SAT!

Sports

The drive to excel! The thrill of competition! The camaraderie of being on a team! To throw in a division title or a state championship, and you have a dream come true for any athlete to savor. We all know the old saying, "It's not whether you win or lose, it's how you play the game that counts." For a Bay View athlete, nothing could be more true. On the field, on the court, on the track, on the river, on the ocean, even on the sidelines, our teams give their hearts and souls to the game. Their skills and determination make them winners in our eyes, no matter what the season's record might say. Of course, it doesn't hurt to have a new banner flying in the Athletic Wellness Center, either. Or to have an athlete chosen for all-team or all-division. Go, Bengals!

The day at Bay View doesn't end at 2:33...ever! So many activities occur both before and after school that we might say that the sun never sets at the Bay! There's something for everyone. Wherever your interests are, there's an organization here for you! If your interest is in service-oriented activities, you can join Mercy Action or Peer Ministry. If performance is your passion, there's Chamber, Theater, or even BUTU. If you'd rather follow more intellectual pursuits, there's the Math Team or Excalibur! And if you just love to write, you can join staff of The View or Zoe Literary Magazine. Looking to be a lawyer or involved in politics, then there's Mock Trial and Model Legislature. And last but not least, you can put the whole year of memories together by joining the McAuleyan Yearbook Staff. So many choices, so little time!

P arent Messages

The moment they saw you, they fell head over heels in love. . . whether you were their first, second, third, or fourth child. It didn't matter to them that you were small and maybe not so cute at that very moment. Already their dreams and hopes for you were taking shape. What would the future hold for you? Would you be happy? Would you find your place in the world? And now here you are, moving on to college. Moving away from home. They are so proud! Such a bittersweet moment!

Paige Baeder

CONGRATULATIONS!

Hit the Top Step Running! Get a great college education and never worry about flying with "those people eating peanuts" again. When times get tough, remember, "What doesn't kill us makes us stronger." Oh, the memories I can see! My dress up doll, our trip to Disney, the 3-year-old surfer girl as cute as can be. You entered Bay View as a little girl and emerged as a young woman, knowledgeable, sensitive, gathering a direction and loving life to the fullest. Now go get 'em. We hope your future is everything you desire. To our beautiful "princessa," as you prepare to go forth with your sails full of hope, remember, your lighthouse at home always awaits you!

Alyssa Marie Emma

OUR LITTLE PRINCESS

Alyssa, we are so proud of you and all that you have accomplished. Since you were born you have had a passion for life. The love and selflessness in your heart shows all that you are and all that you will become. As your new journey begins, keep in mind that life has many challenges and no matter where it takes you, always remember, "Whatever the mind can conceive and believe, it can achieve."

Love, Mom, Dad & Colby

Hannah Feitelberg

CONGRATULATIONS!

Keep it real, keep it fun. From here you move on, over, up! Move smoothly. Take all that you've learned and apply it to every day. Live, love, laugh, Hannah... because that is what it is all about. That and a good pair of shoes and you will go anywhere! Love and kisses FOREVER!

THE FUTURE IS YOURS!

Kisses always,
Mom, Dad, Sophie and Nate

WE ARE SO PROUD OF YOU!

“And as you stay for the play Fantasy has in store for you,
A glowing light will see you through.

Give the heavens above more than just a passing glance. When you get the choice to sit it out or dance. We hope you dance.”
