they need that level of detail. There is no discipline on how these funds are spent or appropriated. C. Toomey commented there are multiple audits going on. D. Coffman commented we know where we spent the funds and he would be happy to go to the Supreme Court to talk about this. If we did not spend it you did a great job or the funds were budgeted wrong. If we did not spend we have had a surplus each year. We have taken more than deserved. Spent it if it deserves to be spent. J. Swanson explained she was not involved in the budget being worked on for the default. Next year you will see a considerable difference. We are trying to make corrections. W.
