

Community Outreach Update

Think like Flat Stanley, but, instead with a Summer Twist.... Can you find our Flamingo in our Adventures? Be on the lookout for him!

Our Volunteers are as AWESOME as our Veggies & Books!

During the month of June we visited with 128 students

During the month of July we visited with 115 students and even went to the Sanger 's famous Splash Pad!

Splash Pad Time? Not a problem - Purple Bus for the WIN!!

STUFF THE BUS

Thank you our Partner in Education - First United Bank

We had fun sharing stories on the Purple Bus, meeting new people, and making new contacts at the Annual “Stuff the Bus” event sponsored by First United Bank!

The staff at First United Bank were awesome from cooking to reading to our young kids!

Thank you to everyone who attended and made this event possible.

School Supplies and books donated during this event are greatly appreciated by all the families of Sanger ISD!

LINDA TUTT FARMER'S MARKET & GROCERY STORE (AKA COMMUNITY GARDEN AND TARRANT AREA FOOD BANK)

Between our very own Community Garden and our Fabulous Partnership with Tarrant Area Food Bank (HEB & Cook's Children Hospital and Ag Farm in El Paso) we have kept our families healthy with fruits and veggies throughout the summer and the plan is to continue every Tuesday with produce delivery. Families have really enjoyed picking their veggies!

Our deliveries are huge at times and we will call on our friends at area churches, and some of our local nursing homes, to share the goods for their meal-time, mobile drive, God's table, all received the tasty boxes to share with their organizations! Keep your calendar reminder on to come get your goods and veggies every Tuesday from 6-7 p.m. at Linda Tutt. Be sure to share the event with your family and friends.
