Minutes

Motion by Mr. Klink, second by Mr. McQuiston with Real of Pa of Jamestown, Pa.

Mr. Burnham felt this motion needs to be tabled to next month so all have a chance to review the documents and the landlocked partial needs addressed before going any further. Mrs. Luckock noted the motion has started. Mr. Burnham asked if the baseball and softball fields were a separate deed. Mrs. Luckock responded the RFP involves all on that location. Mr. Schaef was not in favor of delaying, we need to move along. Mr. McQuiston reminded there is a lot of public interested in what is going on. Mrs. Luckock said those of us who reviewed the RFP responses are comfortable with bringing it to the board tonight. Mr. Klink said the difference between the two who responded is a coil flip, one is a local guy who appears to be retired to this area, he is not sure of the effort but are very professional. Mr. Burnham said one is cheaper percentage, 3 ½ percent and Marz is 6 or 6 ½ percent. Mrs. Luckock noted Mr. Nader, herself, Mr. McQuiston and Mr. Klink reviewed them. Mrs. Luckock personally felt Real of Pa she liked for consideration. Mr. Burnham asked to have the 2nd deed out of this for a private sale without paying provisions. Mrs. Luckock said the motion on the floor by Mr. Klink and Mr. McQuiston is to enter in agreement with Real of Pa. Mr. Klink asked if we are locked or can we separate the properties. Mrs. Harrington said the RFP covers the five deeds including that partial and cannot due to the RFP that was sent out. One group runs along route 18 of 20 acres with building and fields and the 2nd partial is landlocked and consists of 7.4 acres. Mr. Burnham added it is reclaimed wetlands. Mr. Hall added he feels it is one package that we want to sell it as.
