Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (2013 and 2020)

The amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (2013 and 2020) provides that when applying for certain jobs and activities, certain convictions and cautions are considered 'protected'. This means that they do not need to be disclosed to employers, and if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account. Guidance about whether a conviction or caution should be disclosed can be found on the Ministry of Justice website.

Do you have any convictions or cautions (excluding youth cautions, reprimands, or warnings) that are not 'protected' as defined by the Ministry of Justice?

Yes No

If yes, please provide details in a separate, sealed envelope

Disclosure of non-protected convictions will not necessarily be a bar to employment but failure to disclose this information could result in dismissal if subsequently discovered.

People with disabilities, please note - People with disabilities are guaranteed an interview if they meet all of the essential requirements of the person specification. If you consider yourself to have a disability to be taken into account during the recruitment and selection process, please explain what assistance you would like to receive:

Would you require any type of adjustments to working arrangements or the work environment to assist you in overcoming any disadvantage or disability?

Yes No

If yes, please give details
