Good afternoon John Burroughs students, families, faculty and support staff. Welcome back to school, I hope you all got the rest and relaxation you deserve.

Please see the weekly updates below;

JBHS will be on a "traditional" bell schedule for the week of April 1st. This is due to CAASPP. The bell schedule is attached to this email.

This week we will be continuing with state testing in the areas of English, Math, and Science. At the high school level, only 11th graders are required to test (and 12th graders who did not take the Science exam in 11th grade). For questions about testing, please contact our Assistant Principal of Instruction, Tori Cuseo (victoriacuseo@burbankusd.org) or our Senior Secretary of Instruction Jennifer Perez (jenniferperez@burbankusd.org).

Welcome to Burbank Fair - Are you multilingual and interested in getting service hours? BUSD is looking for volunteers to help translate at the "Welcome to Burbank Fair" at JBHS on Saturday, April 20th. Please fill out this Google Form (QR Code) by April 12th if you are interested.

Teen Court Fundraiser - Teen Court is having a fundraiser on Thursday, April 4 all day at the Kebab Shop in Burbank. A full 50% of sales online and in person will be donated to the Teen Court Club for future field trips. Spread the word and thanks for your support.

The City of Burbank - BEST Program - is hiring for the summer. Hires students between the ages of 18-21 and places them in local for or non-profit organizations, and budding young professionals by offering a structured internship experience. BEST students attend bi-weekly trainings in which they receive the opportunity to do community outreach, fundraising, marketing/research, special departmental projects, and much more! This temporary part-time position grants students up to a total of 1,000 hours, averaging 20 hours a week, or a year to gain hands-on experience in the working environment. Applicants MUST have prior paid work experience, and MUST provide a resume and cover letter. Link to application can be found in the Career Center google classroom, code ywgjdq5 or at https://www.burbankca.gov/web/management-services/best-youth-employment.

Service Hours - The deadline to turn in service hours for the 100+ service hour recognition is Friday. April 19th. Are you volunteering Saturday, April 20th or 21st? Let Mrs. Marando know, those hours will count as well. Don't wait! If you are holding onto hours, now is the time to turn them in and get them recorded, please include any supporting documents. Still working on your hours? See Mrs. Marando if you have any questions or need additional forms.

Summer Dual Enrollment Opportunity -LAVC's ART 103 Art Appreciation will be available for dual enrollment this summer. The Enrollment Process will begin on Monday, April 1st. Class starts 6/10/24 and will end 7/18/24. It will be an afternoon, online synchronous class, running Monday – Thursday for 5 weeks! Space is limited with only 35 spots! If you are interested in earning FREE, transferable General Ed credits for college, as well as 10 Fine Art or HS elective credits, stop by the career center or visit www.burbankusd.org/cte for further information!

Safety Reminder: As we return to school from Spring Recess I want to remind all families and students to be mindful of our neighbors as well as those in our own school community. Please don't use or park in the parking lot unless you have an assigned spot. When parking on the street, please do not block or use driveways. Please drive the speed limit. Please pull to the curb when picking up or dropping off. When walking across the street please be respectful to the cars driving. I thank you for taking the time and doing your part to help make John Burroughs the best school around!! I appreciate all of you!

Have a great week!

GO BEARS!
