PTSA Reflections Contest - PTSA Reflections, the arts recognition program, is open for submissions until October 13th. This year's theme is: I Am Hopeful Because... Students are invited to interpret this theme through Dance Choreography, Film Production, Literature, Music Composition, Photography, and Visual Arts. This is open to all students. Please begin working on your creative ideas. Entry forms and guidelines are available in the Library Google Classroom. Join code: om274a7

Talent Show - Talent Show is coming up on the 28th of September! Go support Sophomore class and buy your ticket for Oscars! Bears on the Big Screen today at the student store! $10 with ASB card and $15 without! This will take place in the auditorium from 6-8pm. Bring cash for some yummy concessions as well. See you there!

Suicide Prevention Month - September is recognized as suicide prevention month and this week Burbank Student Mental Health Board would like to honor suicide prevention week. All week they will be selling ribbons along with a few other activities.

BUSD College and Career Fair - Saturday, September 23, 9:00am - 12:00pm at Burbank High School, Big Gym. Colleges, universities, and career schools will be represented, including most of the Cal States and Universities of California, private schools, technical schools and the military. There will also be a FAFSA workshop to help with the application process. Contact Mrs. Mrs. Marando, ShannonMarando@burbankusd.org for additional information.

Attention All Parents of 10th graders, 11th graders, and 12th grader: The National Honor Society is one of the most prestigious national organizations for students. Members are not only involved in school activities, but also active in the community.

Other qualifications are that you must have a grade point average of 3.2 or better, been a JBHS student for at least a semester, and be a sophomore, junior or senior. Students interested in being considered for the National Honor Society are invited to come to the informational meeting on Tuesday, September 26th in Mr. Fernando's room, Room 2215, at lunch. I will be going over the application process, and then the selection process.

Kenny Knoop, M.Ed.

Principal, John Burroughs High School
