

Monroe County Middle School Writing Policy

The following responsibilities outline the role of the administrators, teachers and students in supporting the school writing policy. The principal shall communicate and monitor implementation of the responsibilities. The school council shall revisit this policy annually.

Administration Responsibilities

- Ensure that all teachers are adequately trained to implement and score different types of writings while providing descriptive feedback.
- Ensure that all teachers are familiar with the RACE writing strategy, SPAM, and the MCMS Writing Scoring Rubric early in the school year at all grade levels.
- Oversee the collection and movement of Writing In Progress (WIP) folders.
- Provide professional development and resources to help support and improve writing within the school.

Teacher Responsibilities

- Include the three types of writing (to learn, to demonstrate learning and for publication) during classroom instruction.
- Provide opportunities for students to publish written work both within and outside of school.
- Guide students in the development of authentic, polished writing pieces for the Writing In Progress (WIP) folder.
- Model and practice the RACE writing strategy with students to answer extended response questions to demonstrate learning on a regular basis.
- Provide regular opportunities for students to practice on demand writing.
- Individual and descriptive feedback on student writing is required. Feedback may be in the form of conferencing, discussions and/or rubrics.
- Provide a balanced assessment approach (formative, summative, etc..) to monitor and lead student learning.

Student Responsibilities

- Apply criteria of MCMS Writing Scoring Rubric when completing on-demand writings and publications.
- Ensure that written work is their own, avoiding plagiarism.
- Complete grade level Writing In Progress (WIP) folder requirements.
