Carolina Lindsey Scholarship 2024

Caroline Hassinger Lindsay attended Sullins College, UNC-Chapel Hill, Union Theological Seminary, and Columbia Teachers College. Caroline was a participant in the civil rights movement and many political campaigns. She marched for peace and women's rights. Caroline was a fierce advocate for children and families and a caring parent and friend. Caroline believed in focusing on the journey rather than the final outcome. She was not afraid to use her social justice voice for the advancement of human rights. The Caroline Lindsay Scholarship will be awarded to a graduating high school senior whose life has been committed to the advancement of human rights.
