Digital Citizenship Digital citizenship is the norm for appropriate, responsible technology use. CCPS expects students to conduct themselves responsibly and develop safe practices when using digital resources at school AND at home. Important elements of digital citizenship include but are not limited to the following guidelines: A digital footprint is permanent. Think before you hit send or post. Once content is posted, it can never be permanently deleted. Anyone who views it can download or save it. Inappropriate posts may prevent you from acquiring a job or attending the college of your choice. Never post pictures or texts that you may later regret. Be respectful in all electronic communications. Everything you post can be traced back to you. Never use digital resources to project anger to anyone. This type of behavior, while using CCPS digital resources, may result in the revocation of access to these resources.

Communicating with strangers online is dangerous. Never give out personal information online (your name, address, contact information, social security number, etc.). Never agree to meet someone you have met online. Always tell a parent, guardian, or teacher if anyone ever makes you feel uncomfortable online. Copyright infringement is unethical and illegal. Infringement occurs when an individual reproduces a work that is protected by copyright without permission from the creator. If you are unsure whether use of material is permitted, request permission from the copyright owner or seek guidance from school personnel. Never copy or paste from the Internet without properly citing the source. Users should always protect their accounts. Never share your CCPS account information with friends. Never try to use another student's account information. Never leave a computer logged in with your account information. Never write down your account information where others may see it. You are responsible for the content accessed or transmitted using your account information. The CCPS Instructional Technology team has developed electronic tutorials in which all students are expected to participate. These tutorials can be accessed on the district's website. Parents are encouraged to view the tutorials and have discussions with students about conduct in a digital environment-early and often. Additionally, students will have opportunities to utilize the tutorials at school.
