Dedication Ceremony Being Planned

Plans are in the works for the Dedication of the new Carbondale Community High School building to be held on September 5, 2003. In the afternoon, there will be a dedication ceremony for the new building with an open house and tours available. There will be a tailgate activity prior to the first football game and dedication of the new Frank Bleyer football field. A great time to come back and visit. Some classes are planning some reunion and gathering activities around this weekend event.

Foundation President Receives Funds

Mary Kay Moore-Capora presents a check for $25,000 to Foundation President Mort Levine. Mary Kay is accompanied by her husband, Tom Capora, and Foundation Board member, Millie McElheny. This is the second installment of their commitment to the CCHS Education Foundation. The funds are split between the sustaining funding and the Summer Scholarship for Underachievers. They have three children; Jillian is a freshman at CCHS and plays soccer for the Lady Terriers. Nic is in 7th grade and Simone is in 2nd grade. Tom and Mary Kay are active participants in the Terrier Booster Club and supporting the education of the youth of Carbondale today.

The Andersons - A CCHS Legacy

We celebrate the many graduates of CCHS and their families. We are sure there are several generations of graduates in some families. We would like to feature some. Let us know if you count the generations of graduates in your family.

Fire Chief, Jeff Anderson and his family include many CCHS graduates, continuing a long legacy in CCHS education.

Mr. Willie D. Anderson, Jeff's uncle, taught at Attucks High School, moving to the CCHS faculty in 1967. After 30 years of teaching Mr. Anderson retired in 1989. Mr. Anderson's children are Basil, CCHS 1974, graduated from SIU School of Medicine. After his internship in Atlanta, Georgia, he entered Family Practice. He is married and has two children. Billy, CCHS 1980, is in California working in the field of Finance. Alisa, CCHS 1972, is a piano instructor and sales in Atlanta, Georgia.

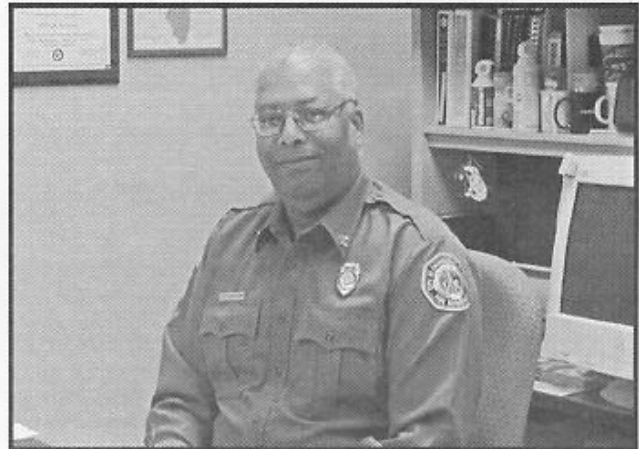

After Jeff's 1968 graduation from CCHS, he attended John A. Logan College and SIU. He completed his fire training through the Fire Service Institute at the University of Illinois. He has been a Fire-Fighter for 27 years, and for six years has been Chief of the Carbondale Department. He has been married for 14-years to Dollean York-Anderson, also a 1968 CCHS graduate. Dollean attended SIU, did an internship in Iowa State, further study at San Diego State, completing her Masters and PhD at SIU. She is a Clinical Psychologist. Jeff's one son, Geoffrey, lives in Dallas. His younger son, John Darius, is a senior at CCHS soon to attend SIU.

Jeff Anderson's siblings include:

Alice Anderson Gardner, deceased, graduated in 1970. She had two children who graduated from CCHS: Darrell in 1990 and Tyesha in 1993. Tyesha is a mother of two young babies living with her husband, Matthew, in Louisville, Kentucky area. She works part-time as an in-home care provider. Darrell is now living in Los Angeles, CA and working in the entertainment industry.

James Anderson graduated in 1971. He has retired from the SIU Police Department. James' three daughters graduated from CCHS: Kenyatta, 1991, Denetra, 1998 and Shamerrah, 2000. Kenyatta is employed at a firm in Atlanta, Georgia. She has a BS from SIUE and is planning a wedding in Carbondale. Her future husband has one child by a previous marriage, Amari Kenyatta. Denetra is employed at the Carbondale

Jeff Anderson, Fire Chief of Carbondale, Illinois, and CCHS graduate of 1968.

Clinic as a nursing assistant. She has two children, Nia and James Allison. She has attended SIUC and JALC part-time.. Shamerrah is a sophomore at SIUE in University Studies. James is actively ministering at the Second Baptist Church in Tamms, Illinois

Valeria Anderson Robinson graduated from CCHS in 1972 and is a retired Evangelist in Louisville, Kentucky.

Amelia Anderson Williams, 1974 graduate, is a Psychologist and works with the Indiana Department of Family Services in New Albany, Indiana. She also ministers with her husband, Roy, at the Mt. Nebo Missionary Baptist Church, Louisville, KY.

Mark Anderson, CCHS 1975, is a Corrections Officer with Illinois Department of Corrections, the Murphysboro Boot Camp. He is married and lives just west of Carbondale. He is an associate Minister at the Hopewell Missionary Baptist Church in Carbondale.

History Video in the Making

These CCHS students are currently working on a video about the history of CCHS.

Many may remember the 50+ years of football video of snapshots shown during the Last Dance Dinner. We have added to that video some of the other pictures and news coverage of the Last Dance event. It is now available for purchase. Place your order by sending $20 for the video, shipping and handling included to: CCHS Education Foundation, 330 South Giant City Road, Carbondale, Illinois 62902. Please mark your envelope – "VIDEO ORDER".

It is a treasure and YOU may be in it!!
