

Perceptions of Others: Student, Teachers, and Parent Perceptions from 5Essentials Survey
State Board of Education Annual Survey

Points of Pride: Strengths	Challenges: Opportunities for Improvement
Student <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Student-Teacher Trust ○ Rigorous Study Habits ○ Course Clarity ○ School-wide Future Orientation ○ Student-Peer Relationships ○ Academic Engagement ○ Human and Social Resources in the Community ○ Academic Personalism 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Student ○ Math Instruction ○ Safety ○ Classroom Rigor ○ Parent Supportiveness ○ Importance of High School for the Future ○ Inquiry-Based Science Instruction
Teacher <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Parent Influence on Decision-making in school ○ School Commitment ○ Teacher-Principal Trust ○ Program Coherence ○ Socialization of New Teachers 	Teacher <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Reflective Dialogue ○ Collaborative Practices ○ Instructional Leadership ○ Teacher Influence in Decision-Making ○ Innovation ○ Quality of Student Discussion ○ Quality Professional Development
Parent <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Prefer Email or other electronic Communication ○ Feel welcomed at school ○ Student Interaction in talking about their day ○ Feel School Personnel have students' best interests in mind ○ Aware of school important information ○ Feel student is safe at school ○ Have Internet Access and use electronic tools for communication 	Parent <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Lack of Connectedness ○ Engagement in important School Decisions ○ Hoping Teachers Listen to Them and Their Suggestions ○ Not always comfortable sharing their opinions ○ Quality of food at lunch ○ Balancing work and family education responsibilities