High school roundup: Greater Lowell Tech girls make lacrosse history

Down 4-0 at halftime, it certainly didn't look like the Gryphons were in position to make history Sunday.

Thanks to a great second-half comeback, however, the Greater Lowell girls lacrosse team netted the program's first-ever MIAA state tournament victory, a 7-4 conquest of No. 34 Bristol-Plymouth in Tyngsboro.

Second-year head coach Julio Pastrana must have made a great halftime speech because the No. 31 Gryphons (10-7) dominated the second half to capture the Div. 4 preliminary round game.

Julia Canario scored two goals and added two assists. Emma Finch netted two goals, while Nayara Burato claimed a goal and assist. Also starring in the history-making win were Mykaela Correia (goal), Tyra Medina (goal), Kristine Nocco (assist) and goalie Davalyn Sanchez, who made five saves.

GLT has little time to savor its victory. The Gryphons will play Monday (5 p.m.) at No. 2 seeded Medfield (17-3).
