

Greater Lowell Tech names April, May Students of the Month

June 15, 2021 at 3:01 p.m.

TYNGSBORO — Greater Lowell Technical High School announced its April and May Students of the Month, selected for displaying the characteristics of respect, effort, accountability, commitment and honesty in their classes and among their peers.

April

Kassandra Marrero of Lowell is the Senior of the Month. She is in the Medical Laboratory and Assisting program and maintains honor-roll grades with an overall grade-point average of 4.09. She received an award for Outstanding Achievement in Medical and won the school's recent Science Fair. She works as a medical assistant at New England Foot and Ankle in Chelmsford through the school's Cooperative Education program. She is also a member of the National Honor Society and National Technical Honor Society, and volunteers for school open houses and other community-service initiatives.

Kassandra was nominated as a student for her exceptional efforts to contribute to a positive school climate. She plans to continue her education and is interested in studying Forensics and Psychology.

Livkate Mejias of Lowell is the Junior of the Month. She is in the Programming and Web Development program and has achieved honor-roll grades in all of her academic and technical work, maintaining an overall grade-point average of 3.88. She competes in SkillsUSA and is a member of the Dance Club and Summer Success program. Livkate was nominated for her willingness to assist others with new technology and her attentiveness to studies. She plans to pursue a degree in Elementary Education.

Justin Garcia of Lowell is the Sophomore of the Month. He is in the Automotive Technology program and maintains a cumulative grade-point average of 3.69. He hopes to continue his education after graduation. Justin was nominated by multiple instructors for coming to class prepared to try his best every day, even if the work is challenging for him. Through his academics and compartment, he is a role model to classmates.

Jasmine Sanchez of Dracut is the Freshman of the Month. She entered Greater Lowell Tech from Richardson Middle School and has achieved high honors, recording a grade-point average of 3.86. She is a member of the SkillsUSA Chapter's Freshman Achievement program and served as a voting delegate to the State Conference. Jasmine hopes to study either Marketing Education or Culinary Arts. She was nominated for her willingness to accept constructive criticism, her respect for her peers and her work ethic.

May

Thu Do of Lowell is the Senior of the Month. She is in the Programming and Web Development program and is ranked eighth in the senior class with an overall grade-point average of 4.28. She is a high-honors student and is treasurer for SkillsUSA. She has been inducted into the National Honor Society and National Technical Honor Society and is president of the Math Club. She is also a peer tutor and has accrued over 100 hours of community service at the school and at the Merrimack Valley Food Bank. Thu was nominated for her consistent high quality of work and desire to succeed. She has received a full scholarship to Wellesley College and plans to pursue a double major in Computer Science and Education, with the goal of becoming a teacher.

Trina Tran of Lowell is the Junior of the Month. She is in the Medical Laboratory and Assisting program and maintains an overall grade-point average of 4.29. She is a high-honors student and is secretary of SkillsUSA. Trina has been inducted into the National Technical Honor Society and National Honor Society. She won in-house and district medals for Medical Math and has received her a SkillsUSA State Leader Award. She has volunteered countless hours to community-service projects and serves as a student ambassador during eighth-grade tours and open houses. Trina plans to study Pharmacology in college. She was nominated for being a kind and patient mentor to underclassmen, and a student who steps up to any challenge, follows through on every commitment and completes all tasks with the utmost effort.

Jamie Febres of Dracut is the Sophomore of the Month. She is in the Medical Laboratory and Assisting program and maintains a cumulative grade-point average of 4.08. She is an honor-roll student and a member of Student Council and Yearbook Club. She is an accomplished competitive dancer and a volunteer dance instructor and model. Jamie plans to attend UMass Lowell to study Physical Therapy, with the intention of earning her doctorate. She was nominated for her involvement in the school community, diligence in completing assignments and positive attitude toward learning.

Angela Pereira of Lowell is the Freshman of the Month. She entered Greater Lowell Tech from Collegiate Charter School of Lowell and hopes to enter either the Marketing Education or Medical Laboratory and Assisting program. She is an honor-roll student and maintains a grade-point average of 3.86. She is interested in many sports, including soccer, cheerleading, and gymnastics. Angela was nominated by multiple instructors for her passion to learn, for consistently using her time effectively, and for supporting her peers.

