

Greater Lowell Tech foursome March to top of class

The Lowell Sun

UPDATED: 05/06/2018 06:36:04 AM EDT

TYNGSBORO -- Greater Lowell Technical High School has selected its March Students of the Month. Each of the students display the school's core values of respect, effort, accountability, commitment and honesty in their classes and among their peers.

Katelynn Jacques of Lowell is the Senior of the Month. She is in the Graphics Communication program and has had perfect attendance all four years while achieving high honors for three years. She is ranked fourth in the senior class and has been inducted into the National Technical Honor Society. She was nominated for going above and beyond to help other students and for being an asset in the Graphics shop.

Katelynn Jacques

Katelynn is a member of the Drama Club and a former member of the Freshmen Planning Committee.

Angelina Chhim

Sun staff photos can be ordered by visiting our SmugMugsite.

She placed third in the Science Fair her sophomore year, and third this year in the SkillsUSA state competition in Job Skill Demonstration. She volunteers at the Baystate Marathon and at her church, and was the student leader for End 68 hours of Hunger. She plans to attend UMass Lowell to study Graphic Design, then work in advertising design.

Angelina Chhim of Lowell is the Junior of the Month. She is a member of the National Technical Honor Society and, as a member of SkillsUSA, attended the recent State Conference to compete in Engineering. She won the Science Fair last year, and is an honor-roll student who was nominated for her hard work, dedication and positive attitude.

Angelina is captain of the volleyball team and received the Coaches' Award last year.

She also plays softball. She is a teacher's assistant at the LightHouse Art School since 2015 and a youth leader at her church. She has volunteered for cancer walks, End 68 Hours of Hunger and local food drives. She plans to attend a four year college to study Architecture and Psychology.

Kayla Nop of Lowell is the Sophomore of the Month. She is an honor-roll student in the Engineering Technology program and a dual-enrollment student in Chemistry. She is ranked sixth in the Class of 2020.

Kayla received the Special Recognition Award in Biology last year. She was nominated for being caring, helpful and for having perfect attendance for two years. She plans to attend college.

Keila Goes of Dracut is the Freshman of the Month. She entered Greater Lowell Tech from the Richardson Middle School in Dracut. Keila is an honor-roll student who competes for the soccer, indoor track and spring track teams, receiving awards in soccer and winter track.

Kayla Nop

Keila volunteers at the Life Connection Center and helping people in need on Christmas Day. She plans to attend college. She was nominated for going above and beyond in Biology, helping to set up the class aquaponics system, and for being eager to learn.

Keila Goes

Sun staff photos can be ordered by visiting
our SmugMugsite.