TYNGSBORO -- Greater Lowell Technical High School has announced November's Students of the Month, having displayed the characteristics of the school's core values -- respect, effort, accountability, commitment and honesty.

Paige Sullivan of Dracut is the Senior of the Month. She is an honor-roll student in the CADD program. She is a member of the National Technical Honor Society and has competed for the swim and softball teams. She plans to attend college to study Biomedical Engineering. Paige was nominated for always having a positive attitude.

Callie Bartlett of Lowell is the Junior of the Month. She is an honor-roll student in the Early Childhood Education program. She is a member of the National Technical Honor Society and the Junior Class Planning Committee. She volunteers at the Lowell Transitional Living Center and her church. She has plans to attend college and become an elementary-school teacher. Callie was nominated for always being respectful and showing great effort in all of her classes.

Christopher Jones of Lowell is the Sophomore of the Month. He is enrolled in the Medical Assisting program and is a member of the Sophomore Class Planning Committee. He competes for indoor and spring track teams. He volunteers for the Merrimack Valley Food Bank, City of Lights Parade and the Greater Lowell Spaghetti Dinner and Craft Fair. He plans to attend college and follow his dream of becoming a doctor. Christopher was nominated for being a respectful, polite and a hard-working student, and for his great attitude and commitment to the school community.

Abigail Silva of Tyngsboro is the Freshman of the Month. She entered Greater Lowell Tech from Tyngsboro Middle School, is a member of Centerstage Dance Academy and is an ambassador for Project 351, a nonprofit youth-service organization that develops a rising generation of "community-first" leaders. She is interested in entering either the Culinary or Early Childhood programs. Abigail was nominated for being a hard-working and motivated student who always shows effort.
