TYNGSBORO -- Greater Lowell Technical High School has selected the October Students of the Month.

Taylor Jeffrey of Lowell is the Senior of the Month. She is an honor-roll student enrolled in the Graphics Communication program. She is a member of SkillsUSA and recently won a bronze medal at the National Leadership and Skills Conference for her work on the school's chapter display. Taylor competes for the soccer, swim and softball teams. She plans to attend college to become a forensic scientist.

Taylor was nominated for having a positive attitude and always giving 100 percent effort in the classroom.

Sovannara Reth of Lowell is the Junior of the Month. He is an honor-roll student in the Early Childhood Education program and has had perfect attendance for the past two years. He participated in Greater Lowell Tech's Science Fair and has been involved in a number of community-service projects, including volunteering his time for the Lowell General Hospital Walk for CancerCare, the Lowell Winterfest, Lowell Folk Festival and GLTHS freshman orientation. He plans to attend college after graduation to earn a degree in Early Childhood Education.

Sovannara was nominated for his great attitude and commitment to the school community.

Jacob Menezes of Dunstable is the Sophomore of the Month. He is enrolled in the Plumbing program and is a member of the wrestling team. He volunteers at the Middlesex County 4-H Fair and plans to work in the plumbing industry after graduation.

Jacob was nominated for being a respectful, polite and a hard-working student.

Jacob Trzcienski of Dracut is the Freshman of the Month. He entered Greater Lowell Tech from the Richardson Middle School. He plays football and plans to play basketball and baseball. He is interested in joining the Carpentry program and plans to attend college and continue to play sports.

Jacob was nominated for being a hard-working and motivated student who always shows effort.
