

Gryphons keep tourney hopes alive

The Lowell Sun

UPDATED: 10/27/2017 09:51:58 AM EDT

The Greater Lowell Tech boys soccer team avenged a shutout loss earlier in the season to Lynn Tech with a 2-1 victory on Thursday.

Local roundup

Gryphons' goalkeeper Ajani Phillip made 15 saves in the win. Greater Lowell is now 6-7-4 and needs a win tomorrow on Friday against Lowell Catholic to qualify for the state tournament.

BOYS SOCCER

Greater Lowell 2

Lynn Tech 1

Enrico Nuttoli and Jimmy Raposo scored for the Gryphons. Also playing well for GLT were: Luiz Minikowski, Mateo Velez, Jacob Gonzalez and Carlos Nicola.

Chelmsford 3

Tewksbury 1

Chelmsford, which jumped out to a 2-0 halftime lead, improved to 11-5 overall record and 11-2 in Merrimack Valley Conference play.

Josh Ofosu, Ben Thompson and Chris McCarthy had the goals for the Lions. Sean Dolan added 2 assists. Jake Hartshorn and Kyle Rosa combined in net to make 3 saves.

Chelmsford also received outstanding play from John Mieszczanski, Evan Wang, Brian Tong and Elias Parreira.

It was Senior Day for Tewksbury, which honored 13 seniors in a ceremony before the game.

Abp. Williams 6

Innovation 2

Robert McIntosh scored a pair of goals for Innovation Academy of Tyngsboro, but it wasn't enough against a strong Williams team.

Solid play came from Sean O'Connor, Marco Savi and Patrick Candor for Innovation, which will take on Murdock Friday night.

North Middlesex 2

Groton-Dunstable 0

Roody Clemetson and Owen Marr took care of the scoring for NM.

Collin Anselmi picked up the shutout in the Patriots' net.

Tyngsboro 1

Douglas 1

Sophomore Josh Fairbanks scored midway through the second half, but Douglas got the equalizer with 8 minutes to go.

Sophomores Dylan Gage and Nolan Michaud, and junior John Redman played well for the Tigers.

Tyngsboro finished the regular season at 8-5-5 and will now await the state tournament.

FIELD HOCKEY

Groton-Dunstable 1

North Middlesex 0

Brooke Towle netted the lone goal of the game, assisted by Hannah Barnes.

Goalie Anne Madden was outstanding in the G-D net, making 14 saves.

Wilmington 4

Stoneham 1

Wilmington improved to 11-3-3.

Jill Miele had a pair of goals for the Wildcats, while Avery Anderson and Lauren D'Angelo also scored.

GIRLS VOLLEYBALL

NDA 3

Whittier 0

The Lancers cruised by scores of 25-14, 25-13 and 25-15, and improved their record to 17-2 on the season.

Emma Thompson had 7 kills and 13 service points for NDA. Kate Scarano tallied 10 assists, Alexis Kirkland had 7 kills and Alivia Farris had 4 digs.

Cambridge 3

Westford Academy 1

Westford took the first game, 29-27, but then dropped the final 3 (25-15, 26-24 and 25-17) in a tightly contested match.

Senior outside hitter Paige Kacherian had 16 kills and 3 aces for the Grey Ghosts (16-2). Senior outside hitter Liz Arnold had 8 kills. Junior middle hitters Caitlin Cannuscio (4 blocks, 2 aces) and Elise Sepp (3 kills, 4 blocks) also played well for WA.