The SkillsUSA chapter at Greater Lowell Technical High School has been named among the top 24 SkillsUSA chapters nationally as a "Model of Excellence" recipient. From left are GLTHS SkillsUSA participants Kylie Lambert, Evan Blatus, Lindsey Stasi, Nicole Helms, Mackenzie Gomes, Zachary Gaudet and Kenny Dela Cruz. It's one of the highest awards bestowed on chapters by SkillsUSA. Timothy W. Lawrence, executive director of SkillsUSA, said, "The Greater Lowell Tech chapter defines excellence across the board, serving as a model for other chapters to emulate in strengthening their local programs. These students represent our future workforce and reflect the future of their communities." Models of Excellence chapters will participate in the National Leadership and Skills Conference in Louisville, Ky., on June 19-23. Activities include recognition at an awards ceremony in front of more than 12,000 students, instructors and business leaders. The Greater Lowell Tech chapter will also receive a grant of up to $4,000 from program sponsor Lowe's Companies Inc.
