

4 earn accolades at Greater Lowell Tech

The Lowell Sun

UPDATED: 05/14/2017 09:15:05 AM EDT

TYNGSBORO -- Greater Lowell Technical High School has announced its March Students of the Month.

Victoria Rosado of Dracut is the Senior of the Month. She is an honor-roll student in the Medical Assisting program and has had perfect attendance the past two years. She is a member of SkillsUSA and won the silver and bronzes medal in Medical Terminology the past two years. She is a member of the National Technical Honor Society and is a peer tutor. She has participated in a number of community-service events, including End 68 Hours of Hunger program, Dracut Old Home Day, Greater Lowell Tech's open house and freshman orientation and the BayState Marathon. She also took a mission trip to Nicaragua and has volunteered at a local safe house.

Victoria is a member of the varsity soccer and spring track teams. She was also the manager for the swim team. She was recognized by Greater Lowell Tech's Caught Doing Good program. She was recently accepted to UMass Lowell and plans to pursue a degree in Biology Pre-Med. She was nominated for being compassionate and highly motivated, and for having great leadership skills.

Jacob Hall of Dracut is the Junior of the Month. He is a high-honors student in the Cosmetology program. He has perfect attendance this year and received the Outstanding Achievement Award in Cosmetology. Jacob is a member of Greater Lowell Tech's Gay Straight Alliance and participated in the GSA Regional Meeting.

Jacob hopes to continue his education after graduation to pursue a degree in Business, then open his own salon. He was nominated for being an all-around great student.

Hope Vigdor of Dracut is the Sophomore of the Month. She is an honor-roll student in the Cosmetology program. She is a member of the spring track team and a member of SkillsUSA, competing in the district competition.

Hope has volunteered for the Lowell General Walk for CancerCare for the past two years. She plans to work this summer and has plans to become attend college after graduation to pursue a career in Cosmetology. She was nominated for her outstanding work and positive attitude.

Milad Amiri of Lowell is the Freshman of the Month. He entered Greater Lowell Tech from the Wang Middle School and made the honor roll her first term. He plays soccer for the Gryphons and attends the Boys and Girls Club.

Milad has volunteered for the Merrimack Valley Food Bank as. His future plans include attending college, working as a plumber and playing soccer. He was nominated for putting forth his best effort every day and for his love of learning.

Greater Lowell Tech Students of the Month for March are, from left, Milad Amiri, Hope Vigdor, Jacob Hall and Victoria Rosado. COURTESY PHOTO

Sun staff photos can be ordered by visiting our SmugMug site.