TYNGSBORO -- Greater Lowell Technical High School has selected its December Students of the Month.

Krystal Nieves of Lowell is the Senior of the Month. She is an honor-roll student in the Medical Assisting program and has made honor roll every term since freshman year. Krystal volunteers as a peer tutor in the homework center after school, has been a member of the Newspaper Club and helps at open house.

Krystal hopes to become a massage therapist after graduation. She was nominated for being highly motivated and having great leadership skills.

Nachaly Sanchez of Lowell is the Junior of the Month. She is in the Medical Assisting program and has made honor roll her first two years. She received the English Language Learners Academic Achievement Award for two years. She is involved at her church.

Nachaly hopes to become a pediatrician one day. She was nominated for being an all-around great student who is motivated and always has a smile on her face.

Chanda Wallace of Lowell is the Sophomore of the Month. She is an honor-roll student in the Medical Assisting program and competes for the cross-country, wrestling and lacrosse teams. She volunteers for Toys for Tots and local food drives.

Chanda was nominated for being a great student who is always helpful. She plans to attend college to prepare for a career in the medical field.

Caleb Scott of Dracut is the Freshman of the Month.

He competes for the cross-country and basketball teams, and plays basketball in spring and fall leagues.

Caleb volunteers at his church. He plans to attend college after graduation and was nominated for being a great student with a positive attitude.
