

Greater Lowell Tech dedicates basketball court to Coach Kane

The Lowell Sun

UPDATED: 12/27/2016 06:35:23 AM EST

Greater Lowell Technical High School dedicated its basketball court to Coach Joe Kane during a recent ceremony before a game against Tyngsboro High School. Many of Coach Kane's former students, family members and colleagues were in attendance to celebrate a man dedicated to GL Tech for over 40 years. Eric Burgess, a current Greater Lowell Tech coach, said at the dedication, "Joe was a truly unique man -- a combination of drive, insight, compassion, toughness, wit, humor and strong convictions. He brought his amazing persona to all the endeavors of his life and to those he affected as an educator, coach and in so many ways as a friend. He was generous in spirit and helped many in need, in hundreds of both obvious and understated ways.

No Published Caption

Sun staff photos can be ordered visiting our SmugMug site.

Joe Kane

Most especially, we will remember how much he made students and staff feel that they had something special to offer as individuals in classrooms, playing fields and life."

Sun staff photos can be ordered by visiting our SmugMug site.