

Greater Lowell Tech H.S. names 4 for November

The Lowell Sun

UPDATED: 12/11/2016 06:36:08 AM EST

TYNGSBORO -- Greater Lowell Technical High School has selected its November Students of the Month.

Megan Robinson of Tyngsboro is a co-Senior of the Month. Megan is in the Early Childhood Education program. She has received the Outstanding Achievement Award in Math and Study Skills. She is a member of Project Purple, the yearbook staff, the senior-class planning committee and Anim Club. She has volunteered at the Merrimack Valley Food Bank, House of Hope, Alternative House, City of Lights Parade, Chelmsford Trail summer program and the Greater Lowell summer program. She works at Little Sprouts through cooperative education.

Megan plans to attend college after graduation. She was nominated for being a responsible student who always works hard.

Jorge Rodriguez of Lowell is a co-Senior of the Month. Jorge is in the Culinary program and works at the Greater Lowell Cafe, where he enjoys cooking and baking. Jorge competes for the basketball, volleyball and spring track team. He plans to work full time after finishing school.

Jorge was nominated for his great leadership qualities, positive attitude and good work ethic.

Melissa McNulty of Lowell is the Junior of the Month. Melissa is in the Early Childhood Education program. She competes for the soccer, swim and spring track teams. She belongs to Lucy's Love Bus, an organization with a mission to deliver comfort and quality of life to pediatric cancer patients. She is also a peer tutor, works as a lifeguard over the summers and gives swim lessons to children.

She has volunteered her time at the City of Lights Parade and the Lowell General Walk for CancerCare.

Melissa plans to attend college and major in Child Psychology. She was nominated for always having a positive attitude.

Jared Marchand of Dracut is the Freshman of the Month. Jared is a member of the varsity soccer team and plans to play basketball this winter. He works for the town of Dracut running the scoreboards for travel basketball. He assists neighbors with their lawns and shoveling their driveways in the winter.

Jared hopes to join the Automotive Technology program, attend college and become an automotive technician.