TYNGSBORO -- Greater Lowell Technical High School has selected October's Students of the Month.

Alyssa St. Hilaire of Lowell is the Senior of the Month. Alyssa is an honor-roll student enrolled in Medical Assisting. She has perfect attendance throughout her high-school career (in fact, since 2010), and is a member of SkillsUSA and Peer Tutors. She volunteers for the Lowell City of Lights, Lowell Folk Festival, Time 4 Change, and Greater Lowell Tech open house and orientation.

Alyssa plans to attend college to become a pediatric oncologist. She was nominated for her dedication to the school and for her positive attitude.

Jessica deSousa of Tyngsboro is the Junior of the Month. Jessica is an honor-roll student in Early Childhood Education. She competes for the softball and swim teams. She is a member of the Peer Tutor program and the junior-class planning committee. She volunteers for the Lowell General Hospital Walk for Cancer Care, Lowell City of Lights and Lucy's Love Bus, and raises money for children with cancer.

Jessica plans to attend college after graduation to earn a degree in Elementary Education and Special Education. She was nominated for her great attitude and dedication.

Alex Arruda of Lowell is the Sophomore of the Month. Alex is in the Automotive Technology program, and competes for the volleyball and soccer teams. He also plays trumpet for the Portuguese American Band of Lowell.

Alex plans to work in the automotive industry after graduation.

He was nominated for being a polite, respectful and hard-working student.

Emilee Parent of Dracut is the Freshman of the Month. Emilee entered Greater Lowell Tech from the Richardson Middle School. She competes for the cross-country team and plans to compete for the spring track and gymnastics teams. She made honor roll the first term. She has volunteered her time to assist with a number of school activities.

Emilee is interested in becoming a registered nurse and working in a hospital or doctor's office. She was nominated for being a hard-working and motivated student.
