TYNGSBORO -- Greater Lowell Technical High School recently selected its September Students of the Month.

Zachary Gaudet of Dracut is the co-Senior of the Month. He is a high-honors student in the Computer Aided Drafting Design program. Zachary has played on the volleyball, spring track and swim-and-dive teams. He received the All Star and Coaches awards for swim-and-dive. He is the vice president of the National Technical Honor Society and chapter reporter for SkillsUSA. He won a bronze medal at the SkillsUSA District competition last year. Zachary volunteers at the Baystate Marathon and the Lowell Folk Festival. He hopes to attend college after graduation to study Architecture. He was nominated for being a leader among his classmates and his positive attitude.

Bridget Porter of Dracut is the co-Senior of the Month. She is enrolled in the Health Assisting program. She competes for the cross-country and spring track teams. She received the Coaches Award, Most Improved Award and MVP Award. She competed in SkillsUSA last year. Bridget works at a local nursing home as a certified nursing assistant through Greater Lowell Tech's Cooperative Education program. Bridget volunteers with the National Ski Patrol and the Baystate Marathon. She plans to attend college for Nursing and pursue a career as an emergency-room nurse. She was nominated for her great attitude and dedication.

Allan Mukundi of Lowell is the Junior of the Month. He is an honor-roll student in the Engineering program.

Allan competes for the cross-country and spring track teams, and is a three-time recipient of the All Star Award for cross-country. Allan volunteers at the Baystate Marathon. He plans to attend college. He was nominated for his positive attitude and being a pleasure to have in class.

Daelon Rich of Lowell is the Sophomore of the Month. He is in the Health Assisting program. Daelon is a member of the football and wrestling teams. He received an award at Greater Lowell Tech's Science Fair. Daelon is planning to attend college and become a nurse. He was nominated for his hard work and positive attitude in class.
