

Greater Lowell recognizes four students in April

TYNGSBORO — Greater Lowell Technical High School recently announced its April Students of the Month.

Micah Amnatkeo of Tyngsboro is the Senior of the Month. He is an honor-roll student in the HVAC-R program. He has been recognized in the Caught Doing Good program and is a member of the Music Club.

He works for a local HVAC company through co-op. He volunteers at cleanup events in Lowell. Micah was nominated for being a great student who is always respectful to others.

Emily St. Louis of Dracut is the Junior of the Month. She is a highhonors student in the Health Assisting program and is a member of the National Technical Honor Society.

She is a member of the cross-country, swim and spring track teams.

She is also an active member of SkillsUSA.

Emily has been recognized in the Caught Doing Good program and has volunteered for the BayState Marathon and Halloween Fun Run.

She plans to attend a four-year college. Emily was nominated for working hard and volunteering in the community.

Kenny Dela Cruz of Lowell is the Sophomore of the Month. He is a high- honors student in the Carpentry program. He is an active member of SkillsUSA and won a gold medal in the District IV Carpentry contest. He attended the SkillsUSA Fall State Leadership Conference, where he participated in a communityservice event for the Hopkinton YMCA. He has volunteered at Lowell Winterfest, Empty Bowls, the Merrimack Valley Food Bank and Lowell Folk Festival. He plans to attend college to study Engineering. Kenny was nominated for his hard work in class and being helpful to fellow students.

Marin Clarke of Tyngsboro is the Freshman of the Month. She entered Greater Lowell Tech from Tyngsboro Middle School. She is a high-honors student, and competes for the swim and spring track teams.

She belongs to the Chelmsford Swim and Tennis Club. She received the All-Star Award for diving and is active in the church. She hopes to attend college and continue her diving career. Marin was nominated for her hard work and positivity.

Amnatkeo

St. Louis

Dela Cruz

Clarke