

GLTHS selects four for March

TYNGSBORO — greater lowell Technical High School has selected its March Students of the Month.

Sherrice Lavigne of Lowell is the Senior of the Month.

She is a high-honors student enrolled in the Health program.

She is a member of the National Technical Honor Society and the Future Nurses of America Club. She has also participated in SkillsUSA and was recognized by the GLTHS Caught Doing Good program. Sherrice works at a local assisted-living facility. She plans to attend UMass Boston to pursue a degree in History. She was nominated for her commitment to education and positive attitude in the classroom.

Alexis DiRocco of Dracut is the Junior of the Month.

She is a high-honors student enrolled in the Business Technology program. She is secretary of the Business Professionals of America, and a member of the Student Advisory Council. Alexis volunteers at a local soup kitchen and the Merrimack Valley Food Bank. She plans to attend college after graduation. She was nominated for being a respectful student who works diligently and is a pleasure to have in class.

Kiana Nem of Lowell is the Sophomore of the Month. She is an honorroll student enrolled in the Culinary program. She has perfect attendance this year, and is a member of the Dance Club. She volunteers for Teen Block at the Lowell Community Health Center, where she assisted with a Dance for Peace event. Kiana plans to join the Navy and open a bakery in California. She was nominated for her tremendous personality and being a pleasure to have in class.

Dylon Huard of Dracut is the Freshman of the Month.

He entered from the Richardson Middle School. He enjoys playing football, basketball and baseball. He volunteers as a referee for the Dracut Flag Football program. Dylon is interested in attending college after graduation. He was nominated for his enthusiasm and leadership qualities.

Lavigne

Nem

DiRocco

Huard