

Greater Lowell selects Tim, Welch, Monahan, Beaupre

TYNGSBORO — Greater Lowell Technical High School has selected its February Students of the Month.

Cynthia Timof Lowell is the Senior of the Month. She is in the Engineering program, and is an honor-roll student with perfect attendance. She is a member of the Environmental Green Club, Drama Club and Tennis team. She plans to attend college and pursue a career in engineering. Cynthia was nominated for her exemplary work ethic and being a great role model to other students. Darius Welch of Lowell is the Junior of the Month. He is in the Automotive Technology program. He has been a member of the wrestling team and volunteered for the Team Walk for Cancer Care. He plans to attend college after graduation and pursue a career in physical therapy.

Darius was nominated for being a respectful, hardworking student who leads by example.

Paul Monahan of Lowell is the Sophomore of the Month. He is in the Culinary program. He is active at his church and helps the less fortunate by donating clothes and toys to those in need. He is an active member of SKillsUSA at Greater Lowell Tech and will compete at the District Competition in the Restaurant Service contest. He plans to attend college after graduation.

Paul was nominated for being respectful in the classroom and kind to his peers.

Tiana Beaupre of Lowell is the Freshman of the Month. She entered Greater Lowell Tech from the Franco American School in Lowell. She is an honor roll student, and has received a number of awards as a dancer. She volunteers at her church and has participated in many food drives.

Tiana was nominated for being a great student who works hard.

Tim

Welch

Monahan

Beaupre