

Greater Lowell Tech picks 4 for December

Greater Lowell Tech picks 4

TYNGSBORO — Greater Lowell Technical High School has announced its December Students of the Month.

Sopheavin Sin of Lowell is the Senior of the Month. She is an honor-roll student in the Engineering program and is ranked sixth in the Class of 2016. She is a member of the Anime, Environmental and Drama clubs. She received the Outstanding Achievement Award as a sophomore and junior.

Sopheavin assists with the SkillsUSA District Competition held at Greater Lowell Tech. She hopes to attend college after graduation. She was nominated for being a great student who is a pleasure to have in class.

Please see GLTHS/ B6

Sin

Pena

Blatus

O'Keefe

GLTHS/ From Page B4 Anthony Blatus of Dracut is the Junior of the Month. He is an honor-roll student in the Health Assisting program. He is president of the junior class and ranked in the top 20. Anthony competes for the cross-country, wrestling and spring track teams, and has qualified for state competitions in all three. He recently was part of a meeting with the attorney general to discuss domestic violence. He volunteers with the BayState Marathon and the Merrimack Valley Food Drive.

Anthony plans to become a registered nurse and work in an emergency room after graduation. He was nominated for being an excellent student and for his involvement in extracurricular activities.

Gabriel Pena of Lowell is the Sophomore of the Month. He is a high-honors student in the Engineering program, is ranked in the top 10 of the sophomore class and serves as class president. Gabriel competes for the cross-country, swim and spring track teams. He is also a member of the Music Club, Chess Club and SkillsUSA, and is a peer tutor.

Gabriel has volunteered for the City of Lights Parade in Lowell and the D'Youville Stepping Out for Seniors event. He plans to become an engineer in transportation and design after graduation. He was nominated for his enthusiasm and dedication to his education.

Julia O'Keefe of Lowell is the Freshman of the Month. Julia entered Greater Lowell Tech from the Sullivan Middle School. She is an honor-roll student a member of the swim and cheerleading teams, and plays lacrosse outside of school.

Julia volunteers at her church and for the Bay State Classic Gymnastics meet. She hopes to join the Cosmetology and earn a license in cosmetology. She was nominated for her pleasant demeanor and effort in class.