

Greater Lowell Tech elects SkillsUSA officers

TYNGSBORO — Greater Lowell Technical High School's chapter of SkillsUSA recently installed its officers for the 2015-2016 school year.

This year's officers are Emily Dowd (senior, Dracut, Medical Assisting), president; Daniel Cornellier (junior, Lowell, Visual Design), vice president; Maria Vicente (senior, Lowell, Painting and Design), secretary/ treasurer; Julie Kheoloung (senior, Lowell, Medical Assisting), parliamentarian; Victoria Gibbs (senior, Lowell, Painting and Design), historian; Lindsey Stasi (junior, Tyngsboro, Plumbing), ambassador; and Dana Song (senior, Lowell, Medical Assisting), reporter.

The team will be advised by Sharon Cornellier, Language Arts instructor, Guy Gangemi, CADD instructor, and Tom Kasilowski, Metal Fabrication instructor.

The next step for the officer team will be to attend the Fall State Leadership Conference, hosted by SkillsUSA Massachusetts at the Best Western Royal Plaza Hotel and Trade Center in Marlboro, where students will develop communication and professional skills, and work toward their SkillsUSA Massachusetts Leader Awards.

SkillsUSA is an organization designed for students enrolled in trade, industrial, technical and health-occupations education. Its purposes include preparing students to become leaders in industry, and to foster an enthusiasm for learning.

Greater Lowell Tech's SkillsUSA officer team includes, from left, Emily Dowd, Julie Kheoloung, Dana Song, Lindsey Stasi, Maria Vicente and Victoria Gibbs and Daniel Cornellier.

COURTESY PHOTO