

Greater Lowell quartet earns monthly honors

TYNGSBORO — Greater Lowell Technical High School has selected its November Students of the Month.

Catherine Sweeney of Lowell is the Senior of the Month. She is an honor-roll student enrolled in the Early Childhood Education program. She plays basketball and volleyball, and was named Most Valuable Player and an All-Star in basketball her freshman and junior years. She was also named MVP for volleyball the last two years and an All-Star the last three years.

Catherine works at a preschool through co-op. She has volunteered at the Boys & Girls Club's annual cleanup day. She plans to attend a four-year college to study Early Childhood Development and play basketball. She was nominated for her work ethic and leadership skills.

Savannah Mom of Dracut is the Junior of the Month. She is an honor-roll student in the Health Assisting program. She has had perfect attendance since freshman year and consistently earns honorroll status. She is a member of the Dance Club, and competes for the swim and soccer teams.

Savannah is a receptionist at a nursing home. She volunteers for the Merrimack Valley Food Bank, Baystate Marathon and Dracut Old Home Day. She plans to attend Salem State University to become a registered nurse. She was nominated for her involvement in extracurricular activities and for being a pleasure to have in class.

Jeanald Javier of Dracut is the Sophomore of the Month. He is an honor-roll student ranked ninth in the sophomore class, and is in the Electronics program. He competes for the swim and spring track teams, was named MVP for swimming and also earned the Coach's Award. He is a member of the Dance Club and sophomore-class planning committee, and is a peer tutor.

Jeanald is a member of an organization that collects books to send to children in the Philippines. He volunteers for the Merrimack Valley Food Bank and People to People. He plans to attend college to study Biomedical Engineering. He was nominated for being an exceptional student who is always willing to help others.

Matthew Barbosa of Lowell is the Freshman of the Month. He entered Greater Lowell Tech from the Butler Middle School. Matthew is a member of the soccer team and plays on a travel soccer team outside of school.

Matthew volunteers at his church, helping to feed the homeless. Matthew hopes to attend college and earn a degree in Engineering. He was nominated for being a well-rounded student.

Sweeney

Mom

Javier

Barbosa