PERSONNEL – CERTIFIED

SUSPENSION

A certified employee may be suspended by the Board of Education for an alleged or actual violation of any of the conditions as specified in Connecticut General Statutes 10-151(d), when insufficient cause for dismissal exists. A certified employee may be suspended or placed on administrative leave pending Board or legal action for dismissal on charges of displaying one or more of said conditions for termination. In addition, the Superintendent may suspend or place on administrative leave any certified employee, subject to any limitations, restrictions and review proceedings contained in any contract, collective bargaining agreement, or state and federal law.
