

A proven tool helping to turn students into happy and successful readers and learners.

Great news! Your child has been given free access to Learning Ally human-read audiobooks.

Follow the instructions to download the reading app so your child can work independently to access the books he/she wants and needs to read.

No worries – listening to human-read audiobooks is not cheating. Actually, they are proven to help kids reach their academic potential!

Audiobooks take away the stress of reading and allow students to successfully access grade level materials.

Using Learning Ally cuts down on homework time, and increases engagement, confidence and academic success.
