Establishing a Club

Requesting Approval for starting a new ASB Club or Activity

Name of Club or Activity requested Students for Social Justice

Describe proposed activities and goals of club:

The goal of Students for Social Justice is to educate members of the WaHi and Walla Walla community about social justice and equity issues that are prevalent in society, along with creating an inclusive environment in our school and community for people of all races, religions, genders, and sexual orientations. We will host guest speakers and have documentary showings, poster making, bystander training, and multicultural activities to introduce students to other cultures and give them a platform to teach others about their own.

Describe how money will be raised to fund activities:

We plan to host fundraisers to help fund activities as well as potentially selling tickets to certain events/movie showings.

Funds raised will be used to:

Funds will be used to purchase shirts for club members, poster making supplies, and food for multicultural night.

Name of proposed advisor in charge of activities: Marqui Shields

Budget capacity requested: $750
