

Pete Martino

Pete Martino serves as the assistant director for student and family services for West Aurora School District 129. In this role, he is responsible for managing school safety procedures, supporting all district buildings with student disciplinary matters and alternative education options, and overseeing the student enrollment and residency processes. Pete is focused on restorative schools and building meaningful relationships with all district stakeholders as well as working closely with law enforcement and emergency management services to provide safe and healthy school environments. Pete holds a bachelor's degree in English from Elmhurst University and a master's degree in educational leadership from National Louis University.