

Sabrina Vanderburg is a native of Corpus Christi, Texas having graduated from Mary Carroll High School in 2010. She obtained her Bachelors in Music from Texas A&M University – Corpus Christi in December 2014. Her primary instrument is Saxophone but also specializes on Clarinet.

She has had the pleasure of working with the best band program in the Corpus Christi area, Tuloso-Midway ISD, since July 2015 as the high school Assistant Band Director. Ms. Vanderburg primarily works with the high school marching band, jazz band, and symphonic band however; she also assists with teaching the 6th grade beginner saxophones and clarinets as well as assisting other concert bands at the middle school campus.

In addition to her teaching, she has participated in the Corpus Christi Wind Symphony and Corpus Christi Municipal Band for several years.