

Mr. Eduardo Chavez serves as an Assistant Band Director and percussion teacher at both the Tuloso Midway Middle School and High School. He teaches Beginner Percussion, Applied lessons, percussion ensemble, and directs both the TM Middle School Concert Band and Middle School Jazz Band. His duties include teaching Drumline, front ensemble, concert percussion, applied lessons, percussion ensembles, at the High School as well as assisting with the Jazz Band.

As a performer, Mr. Chavez is dedicated to the creation, innovation and continuation of the American art form known as Jazz. Performing at TMEA in 2020 with the TAMUK Jazz Band 1, Mr. Chavez received a downbeat award under the large jazz ensemble – graduate college division.

Mr. Chavez holds a Bachelor of Music degree from Texas A&M University Kingsville. He is an active member of the Percussive Arts Society, Texas Music Educators Association, and an alumnus of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, Eduardo resides in Corpus Christi, TX where he likes to work on various pieces of music on his free time.