

Mt. Zion High School Curriculum Map

Name: Hannah Bradshaw

Department: Art

Subject: Art I, Art II, Art III, Art IV

Quarter	Essential Skills	Strategies and Activities	Standards	Assessments
1	1. Students will engage in the art room, learning the space and environment, learning classroom management and expectations, and learning to keep a clean and organized work climate.	1a. Students will begin claiming storage spaces in the art room, learning about proper care of supplies and the importance of taking care of supplies. Students will learn the importance of proper storage of their art pieces.	VA:Cr1.1.II VA:Cr1.2.II VA:Cr1.1.III VA:Cr1.2.III	1a. Class Discussions, Verbal and/or Written Response to Images, Peer Collaboration/Group Discussion, Teacher Observation and Questioning, Pre and Post Tests
	2. Students will analyze, Interpret, and evaluate art and artists throughout history, as well as artists working presently.	2a. Students will study 1 artist each week, and will take a short quiz over the artist on Fridays. A follow-up art project based on that artist's techniques will be completed that day.	VA:Cr1.1.II VA:Cr1.2.II VA:Cr1.1.III VA:Cr1.2.III	2a. Class Discussions, Verbal and/or Written Response to Images, Peer Collaboration/Group Discussion, Teacher Observation and Questioning, Pre and Post Tests
	3. Students will engage with drawing utensils, learning the different types of drawing mediums, papers, and techniques.	3a. Students will begin learning techniques in drawing involving graphite, marker, pastels, and charcoal. Students will learn by guided practice with the teacher.	VA:Cr1.1.II VA:Cr1.2.II VA:Cr1.1.III VA:Cr1.2.III	3a. Class Discussions, Verbal and/or Written Response to Images, Peer Collaboration/Group Discussion, Teacher Observation and Questioning, Pre and Post Tests
	4. Students will classify each piece completed in drawing unit. They will evaluate their work in peer critique.	4a. Students will meet deadlines, evaluate one another's work in peer critiques, and set goals for another unit.	VA:Cr1.1.II VA:Cr1.2.II VA:Cr1.1.III VA:Cr1.2.III	4a. Class Discussions, Verbal and/or Written Response to Images, Peer Collaboration/Group Discussion, Teacher Observation and Questioning, Pre and Post Tests

Quarter	Essential Skills	Strategies and Activities	Standards	Assessments
2	5. Students will analyze, Interpret, and evaluate art and artists throughout history, as well as artists working presently. 6. Students will engage with painting utensils, learning the different types of painting styles, paint, the color wheel and color mixing, surfaces, and techniques. 7. Students will continue to engage with painting utensils, learning the different types of painting techniques, styles, paint, the color wheel, color mixing, and multiple paint surfaces. 8. Students will analyze the components of painting and will be given the opportunity to freely create and explore their potential with this medium.	5a. Students will study 1 artist each week, and will take a short quiz over the artist on Fridays. A follow-up art project based on that artist's techniques will be completed that day. 6a. Students will begin with tempera and acrylic paints on paper. Students will begin with a complimentary color painting. 7a. Students will explore the medium of watercolor paint as they use guided practice to learn 12 different watercolor techniques. 8a. Students may pick a paint medium of their choice, surface of their choice, and subject matter of their choice for this final painting project.	VA:Cr1.1.II VA:Cr1.2.II VA:Cr1.1.III VA:Cr1.2.III VA:Cr1.1.II VA:Cr1.2.II VA:Cr1.1.III VA:Cr1.2.III VA:Cr1.1.II VA:Cr1.2.II VA:Cr1.1.III VA:Cr1.2.III VA:Cr1.1.II VA:Cr1.2.II VA:Cr1.1.III VA:Cr1.2.III	5a. Class Discussions, Verbal and/or Written Response to Images, Peer Collaboration/Group Discussion, Teacher Observation and Questioning, Pre and Post Tests 6a. Class Discussions, Verbal and/or Written Response to Images, Peer Collaboration/Group Discussion, Teacher Observation and Questioning, Pre and Post Tests 7a. Class Discussions, Verbal and/or Written Response to Images, Peer Collaboration/Group Discussion, Teacher Observation and Questioning, Pre and Post Tests 8a. Class Discussions, Verbal and/or Written Response to Images, Peer Collaboration/Group Discussion, Teacher Observation and Questioning, Pre and Post Tests

Quarter	Essential Skills	Strategies and Activities	Standards	Assessments
3	9. Students will analyze, interpret, and evaluate art and artists throughout history, as well as artists working presently. 10. Students will analyze, outline, and engage in a ceramics unit as they learn various clay techniques and terms. 11. Students will analyze time management as they continue engaging in the ceramics unit. 12. Students will analyze and design their clay projects in the final process of ceramics unit.	9a. Students will study 1 artist each week, and will take a short quiz over the artist on Fridays. A follow-up art project based on that artist's techniques will be completed that day. 10a. Students will plan and construct a clay vessel using learned knowledge of clay tools, terminology, and the stages of clay. 11a. Continued construction of clay vessels requires time management and responsible and accurate storage of clay. Students must responsibly construct and store their projects. 12a. Students will practice the final stage of ceramics as they glaze their pieces.	VA:Cr1.1.II VA:Cr1.2.II VA:Cr1.1.III VA:Cr1.2.III VA:Cr1.1.II VA:Cr1.2.II VA:Cr1.1.III VA:Cr1.2.III VA:Cr1.1.II VA:Cr1.2.II VA:Cr1.1.III VA:Cr1.2.III VA:Cr1.1.II VA:Cr1.2.II VA:Cr1.1.III VA:Cr1.2.III	9a. Class Discussions, Verbal and/or Written Response to Images, Peer Collaboration/Group Discussion, Teacher Observation and Questioning, Pre and Post Tests 10a. Class Discussions, Verbal and/or Written Response to Images, Peer Collaboration/Group Discussion, Teacher Observation and Questioning, Pre and Post Tests 11a. Class Discussions, Verbal and/or Written Response to Images, Peer Collaboration/Group Discussion, Teacher Observation and Questioning, Pre and Post Tests 12a. Class Discussions, Verbal and/or Written Response to Images, Peer Collaboration/Group Discussion, Teacher Observation and Questioning, Pre and Post Tests

Quarter	Essential Skills	Strategies and Activities	Standards	Assessments
4	13. Students will analyze, Interpret, and evaluate art and artists throughout history, as well as artists working presently. 14. Students will analyze, interpret, and create through application of skills learned from previous units in this design unit. 15. Students will interpret, and analyze the human form while learning about proportion and how to draw the human figure in a figure drawing unit . 16. Students will begin analyzing and collecting their work for the upcoming art show. Students may begin doing observational drawing or designs of their choice at this time.	13a. Students will study 1 artist each week, and will take a short quiz over the artist on Fridays. A follow-up art project based on that artist’s techniques will be completed that day. 14a. Students will plan and create a design project using their own patterns, styles, and ideas. Students may paint, draw, collage, or work in many other mediums. 15a. Students will study a live figure in the classroom, analyzing proportions of the figure. Students will use newsprint and paper to do continuous line drawings of the human figure. 16a. Students may begin to collect their work for the art show. They may begin working on projects of their choice, while still providing a clear plan for time management and expectations.	VA:Cr1.1.II VA:Cr1.2.II VA:Cr1.1.III VA:Cr1.2.III VA:Cr1.1.II VA:Cr1.2.II VA:Cr1.1.III VA:Cr1.2.III VA:Cr1.1.II VA:Cr1.2.II VA:Cr1.1.III VA:Cr1.2.III VA:Cr1.1.II VA:Cr1.2.II VA:Cr1.1.III VA:Cr1.2.III	13a. Class Discussions, Verbal and/or Written Response to Images, Peer Collaboration/Group Discussion, Teacher Observation and Questioning, Pre and Post Tests 14a. Class Discussions, Verbal and/or Written Response to Images, Peer Collaboration/Group Discussion, Teacher Observation and Questioning, Pre and Post Tests 15a. Class Discussions, Verbal and/or Written Response to Images, Peer Collaboration/Group Discussion, Teacher Observation and Questioning, Pre and Post Tests 16a. Class Discussions, Verbal and/or Written Response to Images, Peer Collaboration/Group Discussion, Teacher Observation and Questioning, Pre and Post Tests

	17. Students will analyze the components of creating an art show.	17a. Students will be responsible for completing their work and meeting deadlines, matting and/or framing their work, and helping set up the art show.	VA:Cr1.1.II VA:Cr1.2.II VA:Cr1.1.III VA:Cr1.2.III	17a. Class Discussions, Verbal and/or Written Response to Images, Peer Collaboration/Group Discussion, Teacher Observation and Questioning, Pre and Post Tests
--	---	--	--	--