2. Curriculum

- When students move from 6th grade to 7th many of the supports they are use to are now gone.
- Efforts currently with “Engage Plus” study halls for assisting 7th-8th grade students get back on track through their freshman year.
- Going to Mrs. Storhoff’s room for Raider Time to work through assignments, getting work done and corrected through Junior High.
- Other schools have Resource Rooms, interventionists, etc.. not just for Jr.High but High School too.
- The specialists in this process should not be Para’s.
- Skills should be taught at the beginning of Junior High -not at the end of 8th grade.
- Skills taught should include ‘note taking’.
