

Graphic Novels Collection @ the Norwell High School Library

There are multiple copies of the graphic novels noted below available for checkout in the NHS library.

American Born Chinese by Gene Luen Yang - Alternates three interrelated stories about the problems of young Chinese Americans trying to participate in the popular culture.

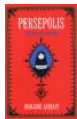

Bride's Story by Kaoru Mori - As she and her husband adjust to their arranged marriage, Amir strives to find her role as she settles into a new life and a new home in a society quick to define that role for her.

Maus: A Survivor's Tale by Art Spiegelman - A memoir of Vladek Spiegelman, a Jewish survivor of Hitler's Europe, and about his son, a cartoonist who tries to come to terms with his father, his story, and history itself. Cartoon format portrays Jews as mice, Nazis as cats.

Palestine by Joe Sacco - Explores the complex, real-life saga of Palestinians living in occupied areas and the hardships they must endure in graphic novel format.

Persepolis by Marjane Satrapi - In graphic novel format, the author presents her youth during the Islamic Revolution in Iran.

21: The Story of Roberto Clemente by Wilfred Santiago - A graphic tale inspired by the life of baseball star Roberto Clemente includes the ways in which prejudice challenged his career, his personal responsibilities, his achievements with the Pittsburgh Pirates, and his triumphant 3,000th hit before his tragic fatal plane crash.

Zahra's Paradise by Amir & Khalil - In the aftermath of Iran's fraudulent elections of 2009, young protester named Mehdi vanishes and his mother and brother search for him desperately.

Booklist updated by Mrs. Pratt, NHS Library, September 2012