

MEET your SCHOOL COUNSELOR

Hi! I'm Amanda Stinson

This is my 24th year in education, and my 15th year as the counselor at LSK Elementary. I've been married to my husband, Justin, for 20 years. He is a Battalion Chief on the Dallas Fire Department, and we have two kiddos - both of whom attend Maypearl High School. I LOVE my job and most of all I love helping the students and families in our community!!! I truly believe that we MUST reach students hearts before we can teach their minds.

Education

High School: Brownfield High School, 1997
Bachelors: Early Childhood Education, Texas Tech University, 2001
Masters: School Counseling, Dallas Baptist University, 2007

HANDLE WITH CARE

If at any point your family is going through something difficult, I would love to help provide some additional support at school. I understand you may not always be able to or want to provide details, and that's OK.

If your child is coming to school after a difficult morning, night, or weekend, please email me "handle with care".

I will make it a priority to check on them!
