Sally Zaino, Community Member, being recognized as one of the original founders of the Manada Conservancy, service as Executive Director, and many years of stewardship of the area's watersheds, forests, and fields. While few persons may be aware of the conservancy's service, those students who have learned from the study experiences and internships will likely join the growing number of citizens now aware of the critical preservation work her leadership has provided, including the hundreds of acres in Dauphin County now under protective easements.
