The Arts – Sean Devine, Class of 1994, is an accomplished musician, clinician, adjudicator, and director. Devine had focused on instrumental music until he met Hummelstown police chief, Chuck Dowell, who was a special guest in the 1994 LD music production, Guys and Dolls. Dowell introduced and encouraged vocal music and a cappella singing by the chorus members, which was being promoted by chorus Director Linda Hummel. While attending West Chester University, Devine worked during the summers as a performer at Hersheypark. In his last year there, he was introduced to a professional guest group from southern California, The Alley Cats. He was recruited by them and relocated to Orange County to perform full-time. In 2003, he also became lead singer of the OC Times quartet, which won the Barbershop Harmony Society's International Championship in 2008. Sean was also a member of the Masters of Harmony Chorus, a 100-man 8-time international chorus champions – and Founder of the Westminster Chorus, an acclaimed youth harmony ensemble. In 2008 he relocated to Nashville, TN to work for a Foundation raising funds to support vocal music in schools. He is currently the Founder/Artistic Director of Parkside Harmony, an acappella chorus right here in Hershey, and works professionally as an Advancement Coordinator for The Salvation Army. He was nominated by Marie Weber and Betty Musser Radle (Class of 1962 and recipient of a Distinguished Alumna Award).
