Community Service – Jeff Still, Class of 1979, for his ongoing commitment to promoting recreation in the area for young people that has spanned thirty years. Jeff is a United States Marine and a 35 year civil servant in the United States Government. He currently offers Zumba for individuals with disabilities and special needs as well as families in the Hummelstown community. Many LD alumni remember him as their first basketball instructor at the Nye School gymnasium. He was nominated by community members, Wade Seibert (Class of 1965) and Patti Hall Krow (Class of 1973).
