Distinguished Lower Dauphin School Official – Lynne Smith Yost, retired Lower Dauphin High School administrative professional who is active in a wide variety of community affairs and church activities that serve to benefit families with members seeking health care at local hospitals. She mentors young people at risk, and promotes the community's historical and educational heritage. Many community groups know to seek her counsel, encouragement, and advice. She graduated from Hummelstown High School and is a life long resident of the town. She is an integral part of the Hummelstown All Class Reunion, an event that many parents of Lower Dauphin alumni as well as LD graduates attend. She was nominated by her siblings, Elizabeth Smith Wille (Class of 1961) and Clayton Bo Smith (Class of 1965).
