Kevin Strawser (LD 1986) is recognized for his contributions to the arts. He has demonstrated a consistent and unfailing commitment to showcasing the talent of Lower Dauphin students in the school's annual musical productions. His productions are recognized for providing outstanding entertainment and for their endearing variety. His direction of a Lower Dauphim musical each year is not only a highlight for the talented students who participate but also for community residents who loyally attended the productions each year. He is also known for his long time association with the Hershey Trolley Works, and through the years has hired Lower Dauphin students who portray characters on the trolley rides. He was nominated by Betty Radle, a past recipient of the Distinguished Alumni Award for Community Leadership and by Marie Weber, the 2013 recipient of the Award given to a former Lower Dauphin official who has demonstrated enthusiastic, dedicated service and commitment.
