Jean Deimler Seibert (LD 1965) for her ongoing demonstration of Scholarship through volunteer work with non-profit organizations in the area. The co-valedictorian for the Class of 1965, she distinguished herself with academic honors at Gettysburg College, Syracuse University, and the Dickinson School of Law. She has lent her skills as an attorney and training in the field of economics to community service work in which she is engaged with non-profit organizations that include the Hummelstown Area Historical Society, the Lower Dauphin Alumni Association, the Falcon Foundation, Gettysburg College, Bethany Village, Bethany Towers Corporation, the Manada Conservancy, the Hummelstown Community Foundation, the Hummelstown Business and Professional Association, Asbury Services, the LD Club Lacrosse, and the Hummelstown Rotary Club. She was nominated by her daughter, Dr. SaraMarian Lucking (LD 2002) and Chad Lister (LD 2001), President of the Hummelstown Area Historical Society.