The recipient of the 2012 Distinguished Service Award is Hummelstown Mayor Bradley Miller who, along with his wife Barbara Miller, are a couple whose many civic activities contribute to the positive relationship between the Lower Dauphin School District and the Hummelstown area for the betterment of all students and their families, as well as teachers, administrators, and other residents. Bradley was nominated by Jean Deimler Seibert, a founding member of the Alumni Association.