Brad Stroman (1967), recognized for his contributions to the arts which receive international acclaim by admirers. He is known as a contemporary realist, recognized for painting both wildlife, and more recently botanical object found in nature. He was nominated by Kathy Imhof Weber, secretary of the Lower Dauphin Alumni Association and winner of the Distinguished Alumni Award in 2009.